The elegance girl

If grace was weighed in gold, there would be priceless. As they realize their own value, they smile from their innermost core. And that enhances their beauty a thousandfold. All those who behold these nymphs in their splendor, clad in immaculate salwar bow their heads in reverence.

They hail from a world where all is heavenly. They belong to an age which was truly golden. Whatever the world had lost is contained in their bosoms and in their smile, which shines with the purest gold. They were carved from desire, and so too their dresses, which are a source of great envy to all those who don't possess them.
