ETERNAL

I don't believe in fashion, I believe in costume. Life is too short to be same person every day.

This block contains a smaller, framed version of the same photograph. The word "ETERNAL" is printed at the top center. At the bottom, there is a quote: "I don't believe in fashion, I believe in costume. Life is too short to be same person every day." Below the quote is the number "4063". The entire block is enclosed in a thin black border with small square icons in the corners.
