The hardest thing in fashion is not to be known for a logo, but to be known for a silhouette. Fashion is what you adapt when you don't know who you are.

ETERNAL

I don't believe in fashion, I believe in costume. Life is too short to be same person every day.

4063

The image is a fashion advertisement for a saree. It features a woman in a dark blue saree with a floral pattern, posing in an ornate, arched doorway. The saree has a wide, patterned border and a matching blouse. The woman is wearing traditional jewelry, including a necklace, earrings, and bangles. The background is a warm, golden-brown color with intricate architectural details. The text "ETERNAL" is at the top, and "4063" is at the bottom. A quote is also present: "I don't believe in fashion, I believe in costume. Life is too short to be same person every day." There are small decorative icons in the corners.
