More Conventional

I think our bodies are beautiful and I think celebrating them and being comfortable in them—no matter what age you are—is important. There shouldn't be any kind of shame or discomfort around it. There's so much information now, and everybody sees everything. When we were young kids, we really wanted to stick, but you have to remember, it was the time of punk, and there was a lot of rebellion happening. It was a good thing, how it's a bit more conventional.

"But it is how people dress in their days off that are the most intriguing. Fashion is very important, it is life-enhancing and, like everything that gives pleasure, it is worth doing well. You can never take too much care over the choice of your shoes. Too many women think that they are unimportant, but the real proof of an elegant woman is what is on her feet."

"Anyone can get dressed up and glamorous, but it is how people dress in their day off that are the most intriguing. Fashion is very important. It is life-enhancing and, too, everything that gives pleasure, it is worth doing well. You can never take too much care over the choice of your shoes. Too many women think that they are unimportant, but the real proof of an elegant woman is what is on her feet."
