The right side of the advertisement features two smaller photographs. The top one shows the woman in profile, looking down, with the maroon shawl draped over her shoulder. The bottom one is a close-up of her face, looking down, with the shawl's gold border and diamond patterns clearly visible. The brand name 'vastrika style forever' is at the top right, and the product code 'ZE138' is at the bottom right. Faint floral line art is visible in the background of this section.
