

A woman is shown from the chest up, wearing a vibrant yellow and orange traditional Indian outfit. She is wearing a yellow dupatta with a pattern of small pink and white flowers. Her top is yellow with a wide, vertical band of intricate red and orange patterns. She is also wearing large, ornate silver earrings. The background is a soft-focus green and white, suggesting an outdoor setting.

Fashion is not something that ends in dress code. Fashion is in the eye.
In the street, fashion has to do with how the eye sees it, what is happening.
