It was always considered essential to have a woman in the family. She was the one who was the heart of the family and she was the one who looked after the family and she was the one who was the backbone of the family.

It was always considered a privilege to be invited to the temple. The temple was a place of learning and growth. It was a place where the children of the temple were taught to be good and to love their neighbors.
