ATTITUDE OF A GENERATION

In the end, copying the style trends of the fashion industry, despite the world going from being and do, and doing not only the way people dress but also how they behave, is a sign of a generation that is losing its identity. It is not only the way people dress, it is the way they live. It is not only the way they live, it is the way they think. It is not only the way they think, it is the way they feel. It is not only the way they feel, it is the way they are. And this is what is most important: the way they are.
