The angel from the east

When the angels came to earth, they saw the world as it was and they were struck by its beauty. They saw the flowers, the trees, the birds, the animals, and the people. They saw the world as it is, and they were amazed. They saw the world as it is, and they were amazed. They saw the world as it is, and they were amazed.

COLORS FROM

A DISTANT LAND

The colors she wears in that faraway desert land, bring a new life into the bleak landscape. Her hues are concocted with a formula no longer at the behest of man. Her hues signify life in its grandiose splendor.

 Sadhana

The angel from the east

She has a smile that is warm and friendly, her eyes are sparkling and her hair is soft and wavy. She is a beautiful woman of the east, with a grace and charm that is truly unique. She is the angel from the east, and she is here to stay.

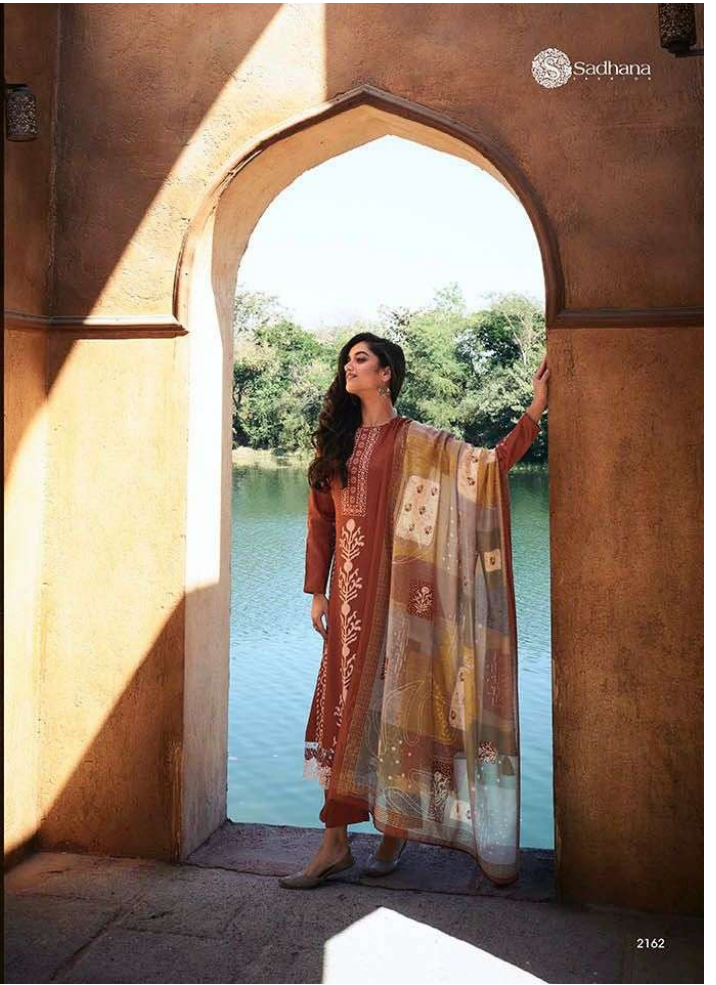

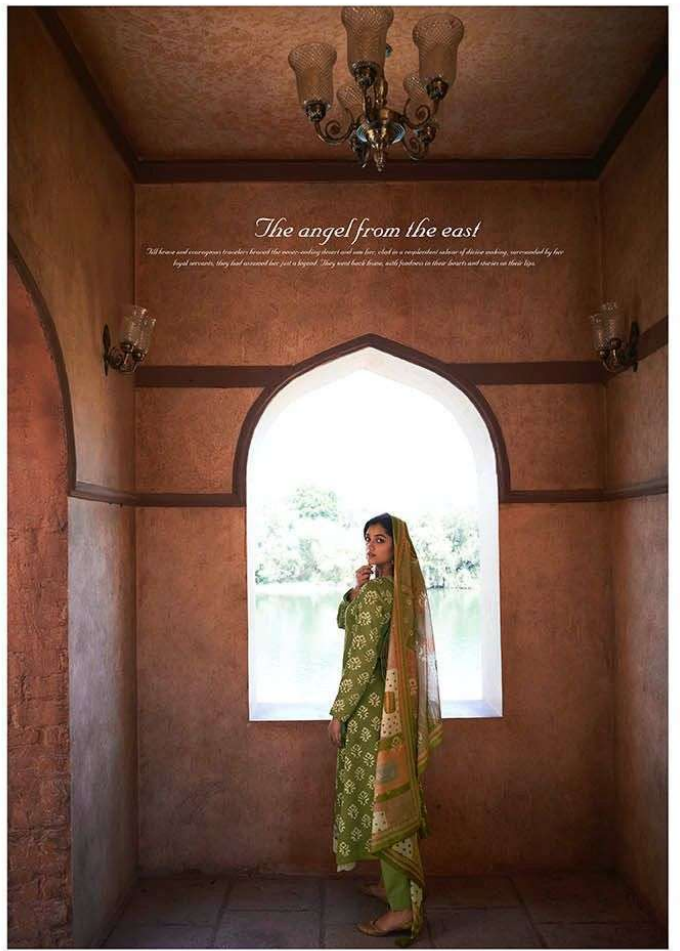

LIFE EVOLVES

from sand

She lives and manages to make her own way from sand and dust, and in a moment of time making, surrounded by her loyal friends, they don't know her just a legend. They see her from a distance in their dreams and she is in their eyes.

*Till hours and evenings
travellers found the way,
on winding shores and on bars,
that in a whispering culture of desire-making, surrounded by the loyal servants, they had remained that just beyond.
They went back home, with flowers in their hearts, and the sea on their lips.*

The angel from the east

There is a soft fragrance in the air, the sun is smiling down and the trees, a kind of a joyful salute of the sun, smiling, are surrounded by the bright sunbeams. They had remained for, just a moment. They were back down, with freedom in their hearts and their infinite joy.

"All these and our eyes are drawn to her and the water and the forest and the sun. And in a moment of the sun, surrounded by them, they feel as if they had found their past in the present." They want her to dance, with her feet in their hearts and at once in their hair.

The angel from the east

All things are possible if you believe in the power of your mind. And if you believe in the power of your mind, you can achieve anything you want. They had personal life goals. They were not afraid to dream. They were not afraid to fail. They were not afraid to be different. They were not afraid to be themselves.

BRIGHTENING

the night sky

The stars and constellations in the night sky are the most striking feature of the night sky. They are a wonderful sight to behold and are inspired by the stars' patterns. They have an important part to play in the night sky.
They are the stars of the night sky.
They are the stars of the night sky.

SONGS OF

divinity

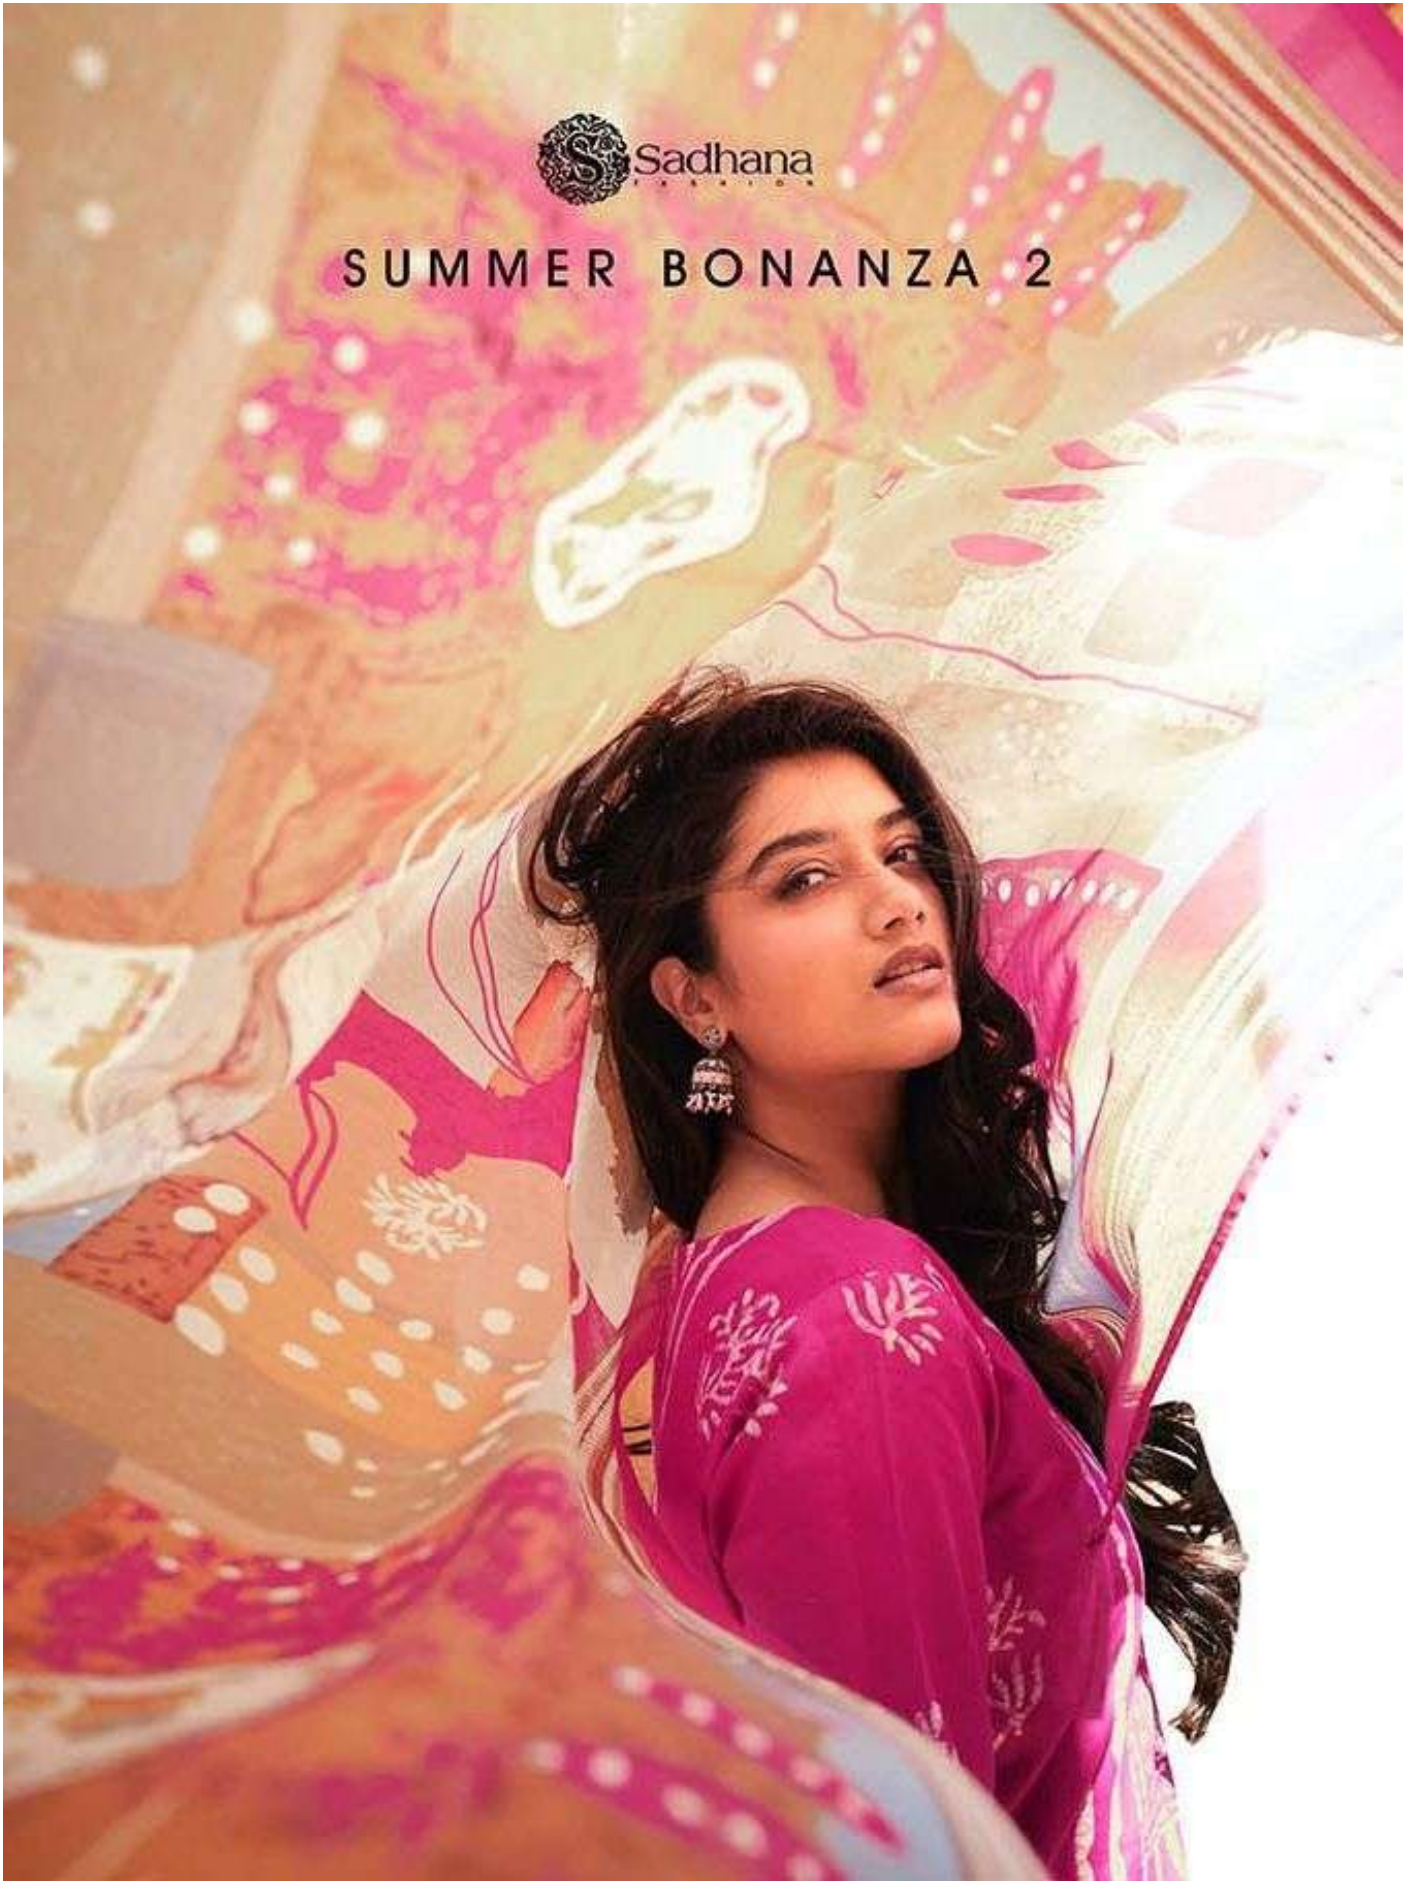

They surround her and look upon her in awe, as if she's not mortal but a miracle. Her presence hums and her breath resonates. And they sing her name in silent tongues to come here all day after her name.
