A woman is standing in a traditional Indian saree, positioned in the center of a stone archway. She is wearing a light pink saree with a wide, ornate border featuring floral and geometric patterns. Her blouse is short-sleeved and intricately patterned. She is adorned with extensive jewelry, including a large necklace, earrings, a bindi, and bangles. She holds a small, white, beaded bag. The background shows a stone archway with columns and a glimpse of greenery outside. The lighting is warm, suggesting late afternoon or early morning.
