Self Work

A woman with long dark hair is smiling and standing on a balcony. She is wearing a bright yellow long-sleeved tunic with intricate white and green embroidery, a matching yellow shalwar, and a vibrant pink and orange patterned shawl. She is also wearing white strappy sandals. The balcony has a white railing with vertical wooden slats. In the background, there is a building with white window frames and a dark grey facade. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting daytime.
