Fashion Trends

In the 21st century the style trends of the fashion industry do not seem to be as diverse as they were in the 19th century, and it is not only the way people dress but also trends in home decor, wedding fashion and people's overall attitude. In the 19th century people did not only wear formal and casual, it was a sign of the whole attitude of a generation, and this is even more prominent today. Nowadays, fashion is held and changed, and this reflects a generation that is not afraid to say what they think, or wear what they want. Fashion is not just a means of clothing your body, it is the essence of your personality and beliefs, and designers are well aware of the power they hold. Designers' judgments and designs for the coming season are more heavily anticipated than in any other generation in the world.
