THE PRESENT

In the 17th century the style trends of the fashion industry dominated the East and since then they have not only changed but also evolved not only the way people dress but also trends in human social design, including fashion and people's overall attitudes. In the 19th century people did not only wear dresses and trousers, it was all of the whole attitude of a generation, and this is even more pronounced today. Nowadays, fashion is held and changing, and this reflects a generation that is not afraid to say what they think, or wear what they want. Fashion is not just a means of looking good, it is the means of your personality and beliefs, and designers are well aware of the power they hold. Designers' predictions and designs for the coming season are even better anticipated than in any other generation in the world.
