The modern bride is the perfect match for the label's archetypal bride—defiant and unwilling to follow prescribed sartorial norms. The modern Indian bride is looking for unconventional hues and designs that are feminine, eclectic and contemporary while still being deep rooted in nostalgia. She doesn't follow trends. Instead, she sets them. This individualistic neo-bride has clarity about how she wants to look on her big day. She aspires to wander beyond traditional boundaries, be it with the format of her celebrations or her bridal wardrobe. Voluminous outfits are a must for the bride, and so is opulence.

Quis ipsum suspendisse ultrices gravida. Risus commodo viverra maecenas accumsan lacus vel facilisis. This pastel wine ensemble toasts the exuberance of lavish colours synonymous with the royal subcontinent. Artistically executed intricate embroidery makes it

Like the first rays of summer caught in a bloom. Bright, soft, rich and touched with gold and silver dust. The Marigold yellow ensemble from Vastrey invokes the image of a sun-kissed bride walking down the sandy aisle on a virgin beach. Radiant, lively and resplendent – perfect for the destination wedding of a lifetime.

We love this ensemble because it perfectly brings out the fusion of old world aesthetic and modern sophistication that makes Vastrey so unique. The lehenga and blouse are monochrome, while the woven gold and pink floral motifs give the right hint of glamour.

 A sophisticated bride has clarity about she wants to look on her big day. She wishes to stand beyond formal boundaries. In a form of her celebration or bride's wardrobe. Valentine's Day are a must for the bride, as is elegance.

A gown captures elegance with. Some combine vibrant colors to create a look that.
 A gown can resemble the richness of all colors combined with great substance.
