Never underestimate a woman who's wearing a saree. If she can sit without ruining her pleats, go hours without peeing, wrap six yards of fabrics around her and still show her cleavage, who knows what else she can do!

Sarees are like Indian women - so versatile. From business meetings to first nights, from political speeches to red carpets, from college farewells to Indian kitchens, they truly have many avatars.

A woman is the central figure, wearing a vibrant blue saree with intricate gold and white patterns. Her hair is styled in a bun, and she wears large, ornate earrings and a matching necklace. She is posed with one hand near her chin and the other on her hip. The background is a soft, textured pink wall. To the left, there are two woven baskets on a white pedestal, one containing green plants and the other oranges. To the right, a white rectangular pedestal holds three oranges. The overall aesthetic is elegant and artistic.
