The image is a close-up of the woman from the previous image, focusing on the upper half of her body. She is wearing the same purple and green floral saree. The image highlights the intricate lace and embroidery on the saree, particularly around the neckline and the pallu. She is also wearing a necklace with a large pendant and a gold bangle on her right wrist. The background is the same rocky coastline.

The right side of the image is a framed section containing a close-up of the woman's face and upper torso. She is looking slightly to the left. The dress's intricate lace and floral details are more prominent here. A large, white, multi-petaled flower is positioned behind her head. The background is a blurred view of the beach and rocks. The entire framed section is set against a light pink background with decorative floral motifs on the left and right sides.
