"A little bad taste is like a nice splash of paprika. We all need a splash of bad taste—it's hearty, it's healthy, it's physical. I think we could use more of it. No taste is what I'm against."

A woman with dark hair, wearing large silver earrings and a green long-sleeved dress with intricate floral and geometric embroidery, stands in a lush garden. The dress features a square neckline and wide, flared sleeves with detailed patterns. The background is filled with green foliage and small red flowers.
