The traditions, customs, and culture of India are something to take pride in. Please respect and cherish each tradition with utmost gratitude. There is a unique beauty in celebrating every festival with enthusiasm. It nurtures identity, culture, it instils love, values, ethics, wisdom, knowledge, faith, hope, history, and the heritage that connects us to them. Though we can't see them, we feel them. Traditional Chalk-painting throughout the country has a story to tell. A fabric is made with a heavy attachment to it. When you take about this, the heart connects our beautiful state of the India and its ages. Though times changed, customs have passed, but what hasn't changed is the spirit of the Indian heritage. There are many women across the country who are in possession of this beauty. They differ from region to region, generation to generation but beauty has not compromised itself with the changes of time.
