There is a lot of life and joy in the world. It is not just the things we see, but the things we feel. The things we experience. The things we live for. The things we love. The things we cherish. The things we treasure. The things we hold dear. The things we care about. The things we are proud of. The things we are grateful for. The things we are thankful for. The things we are blessed with. The things we are fortunate to have. The things we are happy to see. The things we are excited about. The things we are looking forward to. The things we are dreaming of. The things we are hoping for. The things we are wishing for. The things we are praying for. The things we are believing in. The things we are trusting in. The things we are relying on. The things we are depending on. The things we are counting on. The things we are believing in. The things we are trusting in. The things we are relying on. The things we are depending on. The things we are counting on.

BEAUTY AFFAIR

What are these in the picture?
I'm not sure, but I think it's a picture of a woman in a teal and pink outfit. She is wearing a long shawl and a tunic. The background is a classical building.
