A young woman with long, dark hair is smiling and looking towards the camera. She is wearing a long-sleeved kurta in a mustard green color with a small, repeating white floral pattern. The neckline is a large, white, rectangular panel featuring intricate embroidery. The embroidery includes a central circular floral motif, a horizontal band with geometric patterns, and floral borders on the sides. She is also wearing large, ornate, bell-shaped earrings. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.
